Matters to be paid special attention when concluding the contract

1. Scope of underwriting

(1) As a small amount and short-term insurer under the Insurance Business Act, the Company cannot accept contracts where the cost of insurance amount per insured exceed 10,000,000 yen (See Note) for each of the following categories below. We also cannot accept more than 100 contracts signed by the same policyholder.

1) Other than 2) below We also cannot accept more than 100 contracts signed by the same policyholder.

2) Tenants' liability section and Personal liability section

Note: Regarding co-insurance contract, we cannot accept contracts where the insurance amount with the underwriting ratio exceed 10,000,000 yen.

(2) This insurance can be underwritten limited to rental housing for residential purpose. The number of contracts that can be underwritten by the same insured is limited to 1, as stated above in (1).

In case of moving, however, if the insured is covered by another insurance contract underwritten by the Company regarding the new rental unit, the second insurance contract is acceptable subject to attach "Special conditions for the period of moving".

In cases where both the present insurance contract and the new insurance contract are applicable, the amount of the payment based on the new insurance contract is limited to the amount deducted the amount of the payment based on the present insurance contract from 20,000,000 yen.

After the completion of moving, please cancel the present insurance contract.

2. Insurance premium and measures to pay it

[Payment of insurance premium by account transfer]

The applicant has to pay the full of the insurance premium in one lump sum. The Company does not prepare any plan of payment in installments.

In case where the applicant selects payment of insurance premium by account transfer, "Special conditions for account transfer of insurance premium" shall be applied. In this case please specify the account for account transfer accurately on the application.

The Company shall transfer the insurance premium on 27th (or the next day in case such date is not a business day of the financial institution) of the next month to which the commencement date of the insurance period belongs. The applicant is requested to prepare the amount exceeding to the amount of the insurance premium prior to the date of account transfer.

In case the insurance premium does not be transferred, the same action shall be taken again in the following month. Only when there is no willful conduct or gross negligence by the policyholder, the premium payment may be postponed to the end of the succeeding month of the following month aforesaid.

If the policyholder fails to pay the insurance premium by the deadline of the postponement, the insurance contract shall be canceled and the Company shall not pay any claims.

[Payment of insurance premium by a credit card]

In case where the applicant selects payment of insurance premium by a credit card, "Special conditions for credit card payment of insurance premium" shall be applied. In this case please specify the card number accurately on the application. At the renewal of the insurance period, the Company shall submit the transaction of payment of insurance premium to the acquirer 14 days before the renewal period comes into force. In case where the credit card is not available, either the agent or the Company shall notify.

Non-committal translation

[Payment of insurance premium via a rent guarantee company and the like]

"Special conditions for a insurance premium collection by a rent guarantee company and the like" shall be applied.

In this case, there are two choices for the payment of insurance premium; one-time payment and monthly installment payment.

The insurance premium shall be requested via a rent guarantee company and the like on the collection date and the collection method that are agreed separately between the policy holder and the rent guarantee company.

In case the collection of insurance premium is suspended by the rent guarantee company and the like under some reasons, the unpaid insurance premium shall be paid at one time according to the guidance of the Company or the insurance contract shall be cancelled.

3. Notification Obligation

The following matters described in the application form are the important matters (notification items).

The applicant is obliged to notify the facts regarding to the matters below accurately to the Company when concluding the contract.

Please note that if the notification about the following matters is different from the truth or the fact is not described in the application form, the Company may cancel the contract and may refuse the payment of claim.

[Notification Items]

- Rental unit must be used for residential purpose under the lease contract (including units inside paid nursing homes with exclusive right to use)
- Location of the rental unit;
- Name or title of the policyholder;
- Name of the named insured (the tenant);
- Date of birth of the named insured (the tenant);
- The policyholder has other insurance contracts with the Company regarding to the same named insured (the tenant) or not.

Matters to be decided in concluding the contract

In concluding the contract, please confirm that the contents 1 to 4 below is in accordance with contractor's intention.

1. Insurance period, Renewal, Beginning of the indemnity

The insurance period shall be one or two years.

Provided that the insurance premium is paid prior to the commencement date of the insurance period and the Company accepts the application, the indemnification shall come into force at 0:00 a.m. of the commencement date.

Before the expiry date, the Company shall send the policyholder a written guidance for renewal. In case the policyholder does not give any prior notice to stop the renewal, the Company shall continue the insurance contract according to the contents described in the guidance aforesaid.

However, except the case where the applicant selects payment of insurance premium settled by account transfer or rent guarantee and the like, the Company shall not assume responsibility of this insurance contract if the policyholder fails to pay the insurance premium.

2. Specification of the insured

"Insured" means a person entitled to insurance coverage. At the time of the conclusion of the contract the applicant is requested to specify one person actually living in the rental unit as "insured" in the application form (hereinafter referred to as "the named insured").

Regarding payment of the household goods claims, payment of expense for repair claims, payment of tenants' liability claims and payment of personal liability claims, the person who is living in the rental unit with the named insured as the base of daily living is also able to claim as an insured even if he/she is not the named insured (See Note).

Note: On Personal liability section, regarding claims for incidental accidents occurring in relation to daily living except incidental accidents occurring in relation to use or management of the rental unit, the person who is in a position to be able to claim is the relatives of the named insured and is living with the named insured.

● To an applicant who is a corporation or a sole proprietor

(1) "Special conditions for insured persons of corporate contracts" is applied if a policyholder is either a corporation or a sole proprietor.

The named insured is determined according to written contents in the column of insured person's name on the insurance policy.

a. When a personal name is noted: the person is assumed as a named insured.

b. When a word related to status or attribute of a tenant is noted: a person who is a present tenant and conforms to the noted word is assumed as a named insured.

(2) According to the regulation of the Insurance Business Act, the Company does not underwrite more than 100 policies for the same policyholder.

Therefore the Company shall not assume any insurance contract in case the number of insurance contracts regarding the same policyholder exceeds the number of insurance contracts the Act regulates.

3. Selection of insured amount (the pattern of the contract)

The applicant is requested to select the pattern of the contract according to the insured amount of the household goods.

The insured amount of the household goods is the upper limit of the payment for the damage to household goods. If the insured amount of the household goods is insufficient to the replacement value of the household goods actually existing in the rental unit, the insured may not possibly secure an adequate payment in case of an accident.

As the Company does not pay any claim exceeding the replacement value, the portion of the insured amount of the household goods exceeding to the replacement value of the household goods actually existing in the rental unit comes to nothing.

Therefore the applicant is requested to decide the insured amount of the household goods based on the replacement value.

The applicant is requested to refer to the following amount classification based on the area of the rental unit. Where the actual circumstances is different from the reference value, please decide the insured amount of the household goods according to the actual situation.

Non-committal translation

Area of the rental unit	less than 30 m ²	30 m ² and over less than 50 m ²	50 m ² and over less than 80 m ²	80 m ² and over
Replacement value (the reference amount)	~ 5,000,000 yen	2,500,000 yen ~ 8,000,000 yen	3,000,000 yen ~ 10,000,000 yen	5,000,000 yen ~

4. Special conditions for including the lessor as an insured

By this special condition, when insured die, the lessor of the rental unit shall be included in a insured of receiving insurance if the heir does not discharge insured's duty such as liquidating the belongings of the insured and repairing a rental unit.

Matters to be attended after concluding the insurance contract

1. Cooling-off

Even after the completion of the application, the applicant can use the cooling-off system as follows:

(1) Cases where the applicant can apply for cooling-off

The Company shall accept cooling-off notice within 8 days reckoning from the date when the applicant applied for the contract or the date when the applicant received this document, whichever is later. In case the applicant gives notice to the Company by mail postmarked within the eight-day period, or via Home Page of the Company within the eight-day period, it will be accepted. However, if the claim payable has already occurred and the applicant applies for cooling-off without knowing it, such application shall not come into force.

(2) Cooling-off procedure

The applicant is requested to give notice to the Company for the duration of the above period by mail (Tokio Marine Millea Small-Amount Short-Term Insurance Co., Ltd., 7th floor of the Annex to the Meijidori Business Center, 1-3 Shimokawabatamachi, Hakata-ku, Fukuoka-shi 812-0027 or Tokio Marine West Small-Amount Short-Term Insurance Co., Ltd., 7th floor of the Annex to the Meijidori Business Center, 1-3 Shimokawabatamachi, Hakata-ku, Fukuoka-shi 812-0027) or via Home Page of the Company (<https://www.tmsi.co.jp> or <https://www.twssi.co.jp>).

(3) Return of the insurance premium

In case the applicant applies for cooling-off, the Company will return the full amount of the insurance premium the applicant has already paid. However, in case the applicant cancels the contract, he/she may be requested to pay the insurance premium for the period from the commencement date of the insurance period to the cancellation date of the contract by the day.

Note that the Company or the agent shall not request the applicant to pay any compensation or penalty regarding cooling-off.

(4) Requirements

In case the applicant applies for cooling-off, please write the necessary information as shown below on a postcard, etc.

1) Notification to apply for cooling-off to the insurance contract;

2) Address, name and telephone number of the applicant;

3) Application date for the contract;

4) Policy No. (See Note) or Receipt No.;

5) Name of the agent the applicant contacted.

Note: The applicant can check the Policy No. on the copy of the application form for contract.

2. Procedure relating to the moving of the insured

In cases where the insured specified on the policy moves from the rental unit designated on the insurance contract to the other rental unit, the policyholder is requested to take procedures as per either (1) or (2) below. In this case the policyholder may contact the information inquiries described at the end of this document. The Home Page of the Company also explains the proper procedures.

(1) Please notify the fact to the Company and designate the new rental unit as the rental unit on the insurance contract. Policyholder can take this procedure only if the new rental unit where the policyholder moved into is for residential purpose under the lease contract (*1).

Even if the present lease contract (*1) still exists during the move, the Company considers the insurable accident occurred at the present rental unit as an insurable accident for 30 days after the policyholder changes the rental unit as designated.

(2) Please cancel this insurance contract.

Note: In case the insurance premium is paid via a rent guarantee company and the like, the policyholder cannot change the rental unit designated on the insurance contract.

Note: In case the policyholder is different from the insured and so forth, if the lease contract (*1) is continued even after the insured moves, the policyholder may change the insured specified in the policy without the change of the rental unit designated.

Please contact the Company if the policyholder requests to change the insured according to the above. (This insurance contract does not be applied to the new tenant before the completion of the procedure.)

(*1) Including units inside paid nursing homes with exclusive right to use.

3. Procedures relating to the changing of the usage of the rental unit

In cases where the usage of the rental unit is changed from "the rental unit as object of the lease contract (including units inside paid nursing homes with exclusive right to use)" to anything after the conclusion of a contract, the Company shall not continue to assume the insurance contract after the changing because the rental unit will be out of the scope of underwriting of this insurance contract. Please contact the Company to go through the cancellation procedure of this insurance contract.

4. Procedures for changing of the policyholder's address etc.

In cases where the policyholder changes the address after the conclusion of a contract, the policyholder is requested to notify the fact to the Company without delay. The Company advises the policyholder of the procedure based on the notification.

5. Forfeiture of policy

This insurance contract shall lose its effect at the time of the occurrence of the termination of the lease contract (Note) for the rental unit after the conclusion of a contract, and the Company shall not pay any claim occurring after the fact. Please contact the Company because the policyholder may receive return premium according to the insurance period remaining after the forfeiture.

Note: Including units inside paid nursing homes with exclusive right to use

6. Cancel of the insurance contract

In case the policyholder cancels the insurance contract, the amount calculated according to the formula below shall be refunded by the Company.

$$\text{return premium} = (\text{insurance premium} - 2,000\text{yen}) \times \frac{\text{insurance period (number of months)} - \text{number of months from the commencement date to the cancellation date (See Note 2)}}{\text{insurance period (number of months)}}$$

(See Note 1)

Note 1: Initial cost for the contract (cost required for contract execution or the like).

Note 2: The number of days less than one month shall be rounded up to one month in calculation of the number of months.

Note 3: In case "Special conditions for an insurance premium collection by a rent guarantee company and the like" is accompanied and the rent guarantee company and the like, lent the insurance premium, the Company can pay the rental premium for cancellation to the aforementioned lender. The calculation formula of the return premium for cancellation is different from the calculation formula written above.

In case the policyholder cancels the insurance contract, he/she is requested to contact information inquiries described at the end of this document. Home Page of the Company also announces the procedures.

7. The procedure in case an accident covered occurs

- (1) In the event of occurrence of loss or damage, please report to the Accident receptionist center (toll - free number) described at the end of this document without delay. The Company accepts the report of the accident on Home Page of the Company as well.
- (2) On the occasion of a claim, please provide documents the Company requests as specified below. Please note the Company may request the insured to provide other necessary documents according to the situation of the accident.
 - 1) Documents to confirm that you are insured (resident's card, seal certificate etc.)
 - 2) Claim form prescribed by the Company:
 - 3) Document proving the occurrence of loss or damage:
 - a. certificate presenting the occurrence of loss or damage issued by public institution (suffering certificate, certificate of the accident, theft report acceptance number etc.);
 - b. report on the circumstances of the accident (photo and/or image data about the cause and the circumstance of the accident, report made by the repairer etc.);
 - c. death certificate of the insured (examination report of death body).
 - 4) Document proving the claim amount or the expense amount:
 - a. receipt at the time of acquisition, bought and sold note, drawing, specification, written guarantee etc.;
 - b. quotation/account/receipt for repair, certificate of financial institution regarding the amount of account etc.
 - 5) Document to ascertain the amount of the compensation, the amount of the expense and the person having the right to claim:

 - c. out-of-court settlement document, credit voucher, document of judicial decision, letter of awareness prescribed by the Company, receipt of the person having the right to claim etc.
 - 6) Consent form for confirming the matters necessary for the Company to pay the claim.

Note: (1) This insurance contract does not provide "out- of- court settlement service", namely, the Company negotiates with the victim instead of the insured. Be sure to consult with the Company for the negotiation of out- of- court settlement regarding liability claim.
 (2) Please note regarding the right to claim the extinctive prescription expires after 3 years. (Article 95 of the Insurance Business Act)

●Statutory Lien

In cases where the Company shall indemnify the payment to tenants' liability claim or personal liability claim, the victim of the insurable accident owning the right of the compensation for the damage to the insured obtains the statutory lien on the right of the claim the insured possesses to the Company.

The insured may claim the payment to the extent of the amount the insured has already compensated or the victim acknowledges. Therefore cases where the insured may claim are limited to the following (1) to (3), except the payment to expense claims.

- (1) Cases where the insured has already paid the compensation for the damage to the victim;
- (2) Cases where the Company is able to ascertain the fact that the victim acknowledges payment to the insured;
- (3) Cases where the Company pays the claim directly to the victim based on the order of the insured.
